

I listen to Christian radio station K-Love, a national broadcast, and very much enjoy their positive programming. I have learned that the expansion of LPFM stations might disrupt the signals of K-Love in my area such that I would no longer receive it. I am would find this disconcerting as I believe the community would suffer a loss of positive programming if K-Love is no longer broadcast locally.